Shannon's Lacrosse League

Read the short story and answer the questions

Shannon loved playing lacrosse. She was a skilled attacker, with a quick stick and a powerful shot. She played on her school's lacrosse team and loved the camaraderie of her teammates.

Her best friends on the team were Maddy and Holly. Maddy was a talented defender, with a knack for intercepting passes. Holly was a speedy midfielder, who could outrun any opponent. Together, they formed a formidable trio. One afternoon, Shannon and her team were practicing for their upcoming game against their rival school. They were working on their passing drills when their coach, Mrs. Miller, called them over. "I have some exciting news," she announced. "We've been invited to play in a lacrosse tournament next weekend."

The team was thrilled. They had been hoping for an opportunity to compete against teams from other schools. They knew it would be a challenge, but they were up for the task.

Over the next few days, the team practiced even harder. They worked on their offensive and defensive strategies, and they focused on improving their individual skills. Shannon was determined to help her team win the tournament. When the tournament day arrived, the team was feeling confident. They played their hearts out in every game. Shannon scored several goals and made some key defensive plays. Maddy and Holly also played outstandingly.

In the final game, the team faced their toughest opponent yet. It was a close game, but in the end, Shannon's team emerged victorious. They had won the tournament!

The team was overjoyed. They celebrated their victory with a pizza party. Shannon was especially proud of her team's accomplishment. She knew that they had worked hard and deserved to win.
