Amber's Zoo Adventure

Read the short story and answer the questions

Amber was so excited for her class trip to the zoo. She had been looking forward to it for weeks. On the day of the trip, she woke up early and got dressed in her favorite zoo shirt.

The bus ride to the zoo was long, but Amber and her classmates didn't mind. They played games, sang songs, and told jokes. Amber sat next to her best friend, Emily, and they talked about all the animals they hoped to see.

When they finally arrived at the zoo, Amber and her classmates were greeted by a friendly zookeeper. The zookeeper led them to the first exhibit, which was the monkey enclosure. The monkeys were swinging from vines and chattering with each other. Amber thought they were hilarious.

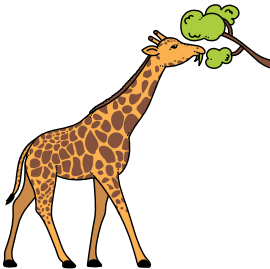

Next, they went to the lion exhibit. The lions were sleeping in the sun. Amber was a little scared of the lions, but she also thought they were majestic.

After the lion exhibit, they went to the giraffe exhibit. The giraffes were so tall! Amber watched as they ate leaves from the trees.

At lunchtime, Amber and her classmates had a picnic lunch at the zoo. They ate sandwiches, chips, and cookies. Amber also drank a bottle of water.

After lunch, they went to the elephant exhibit. The elephants were playing in the mud. Amber watched as they sprayed themselves with water from their trunks.

The last exhibit they visited was the reptile house. Amber saw snakes, lizards, and turtles. She was a little scared of the snakes, but she thought the turtles were cute. At the end of the day, Amber and her classmates boarded the bus and headed back to school. Amber was tired but happy. She had had a wonderful day at the zoo.
