Grandma and Grandpa's Day Out

Read the short story and answer the questions

Grandma and Grandpa loved spending time with their grandkids, Sid, Kevin, and Miley. One sunny day, they decided to take them to the amusement park. The kids were so excited! They had been looking forward to this day for weeks.

When they arrived at the amusement park, the kids couldn't wait to get started. They ran straight to the roller coaster and climbed into the cars. Grandma and Grandpa watched nervously as the coaster took off. The kids screamed with excitement as they raced around the track.

After the roller coaster, they went on the Ferris wheel. From the top, they could see the whole park. It was a beautiful view.

Next, they went on the bumper cars. They bumped into each other and laughed. Kevin was especially good at bumping other cars.

When they were tired of rides, they went to the snack bar for lunch. They ordered hot dogs, hamburgers, and fries. They also got some ice cream for dessert.

After lunch, they walked around the park and looked at the different shows. They watched a magic show and a puppet show.

In the afternoon, they went on a few more rides. They went on the teacups, the merry-go-round, and the water slides.

When it was time to go home, the kids were tired but happy. They thanked Grandma and Grandpa for taking them to the amusement park.

Grandma and Grandpa were happy to see their grandkids having so much fun. They decided to stay the night at a hotel near the park. The next day, they went back to the park for a few more hours of fun.
